Gentlemen, come rest your head between these pillows!

We love our bed, but we figured there was one way to make it even better – and that's to get Rosie, two Emmas and hot new girl Elle naked on it! Settle back, chaps, and join us in dreamland... ➡

BUSTY BABES

POPE

Hi Rosie! There's a new babe on this shoot! How are you getting on? Elle?

She's absolutely lovely. I haven't seen much of her yet but we're going to do some pictures together soon. She has nice boobs, so I'm looking forward to it. I'll squeeze them if she wants. I'll take great pleasure in that!

Are you a morning person?

Not really. I prefer a bit of a lie-in – although only until about nine or ten, then I get restless.

Who would you most like to share your bed with? Can I have Michelle Keegan? She's amazing!

What's the longest time you've spent in bed? When us girls go out in London, the next day, we'll lie in bed until four in the afternoon. We'll order food to the room and not leave until the evening. I have a wild lifestyle!

When you're getting ready for a night out, do all the girls tend to go into your bedroom, do each other's make-up and have naked pillow fights and stuff?

We don't have naked pillow fights but we do all get ready together in just our thongs, because we have to moisturise, put fake tan on and stuff - and you can't put clothes on because you've got to wait for it to dry!

Are you a cuddly sleeper? I'm a very cuddly person in bed.

I like to spoon. What I do when I sleep is lie flat on my back, put my knees up, then cross one leg over my knee. It's a bit weird!

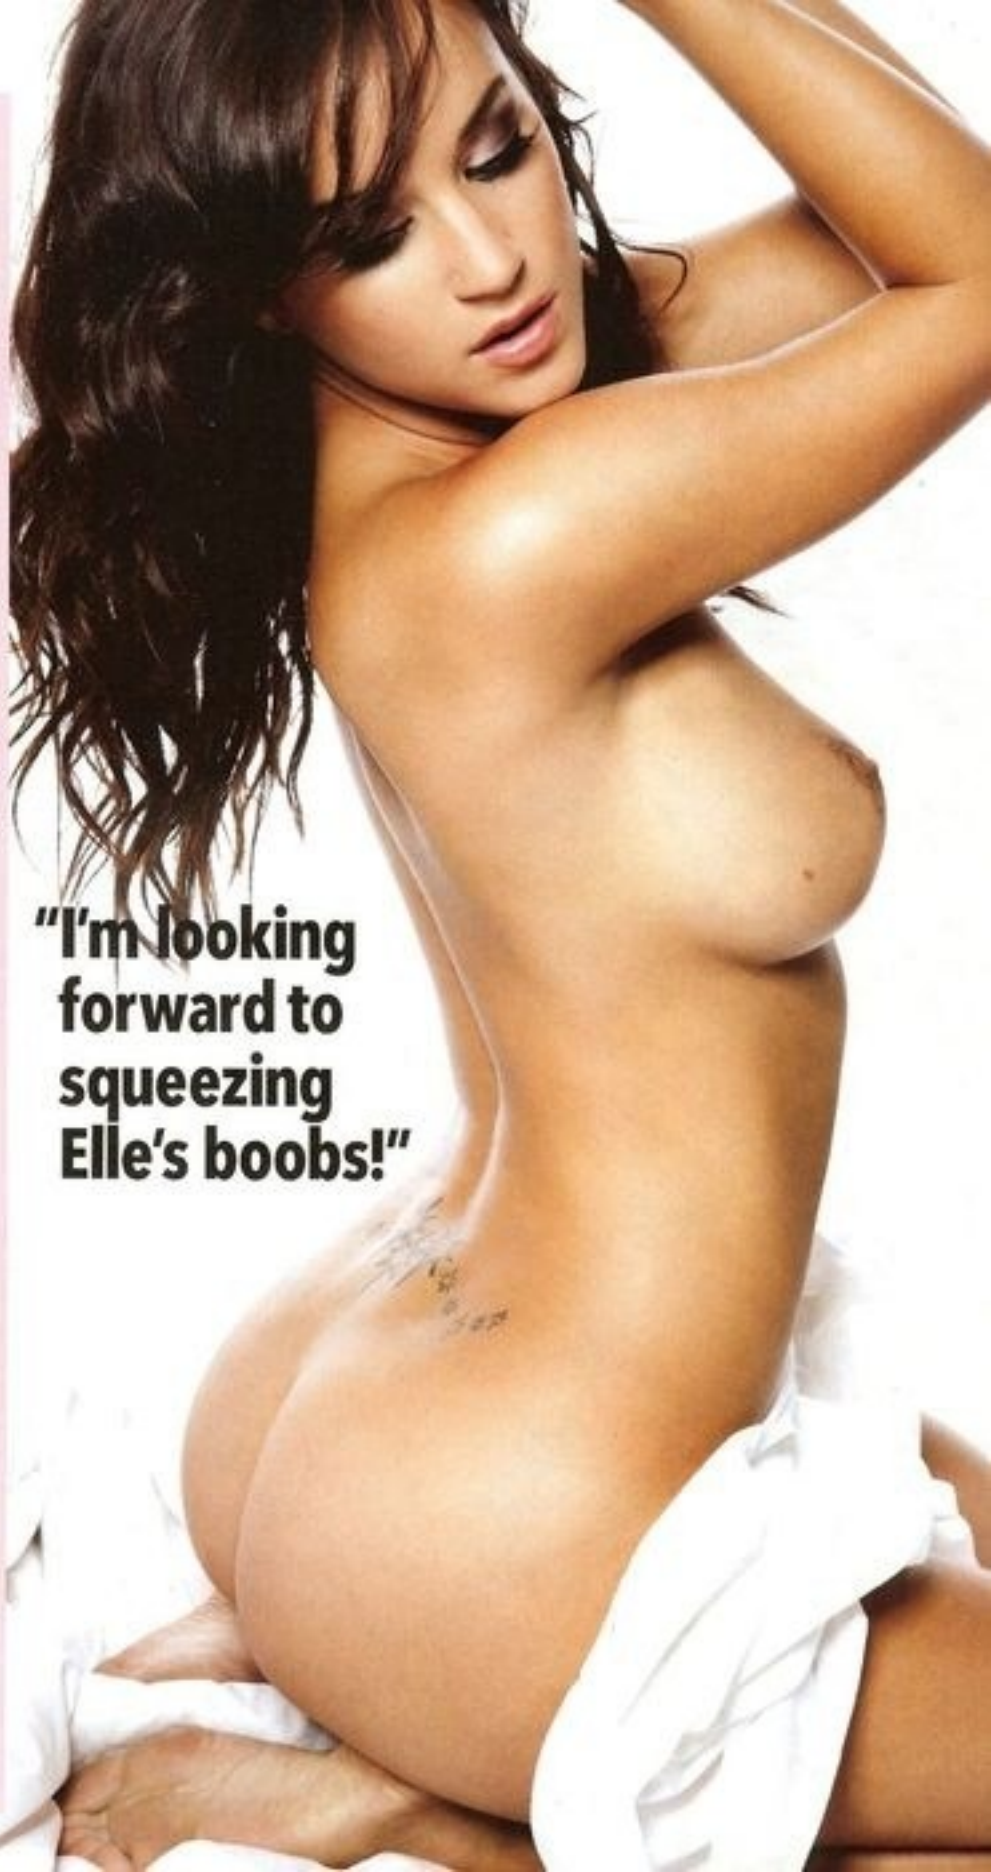

How could a bloke make his bedroom more appealing? By having lots of pictures on his walls of all my friends from Nuts. If I went to a man's room and he had Nuts posters, I'd be happy!

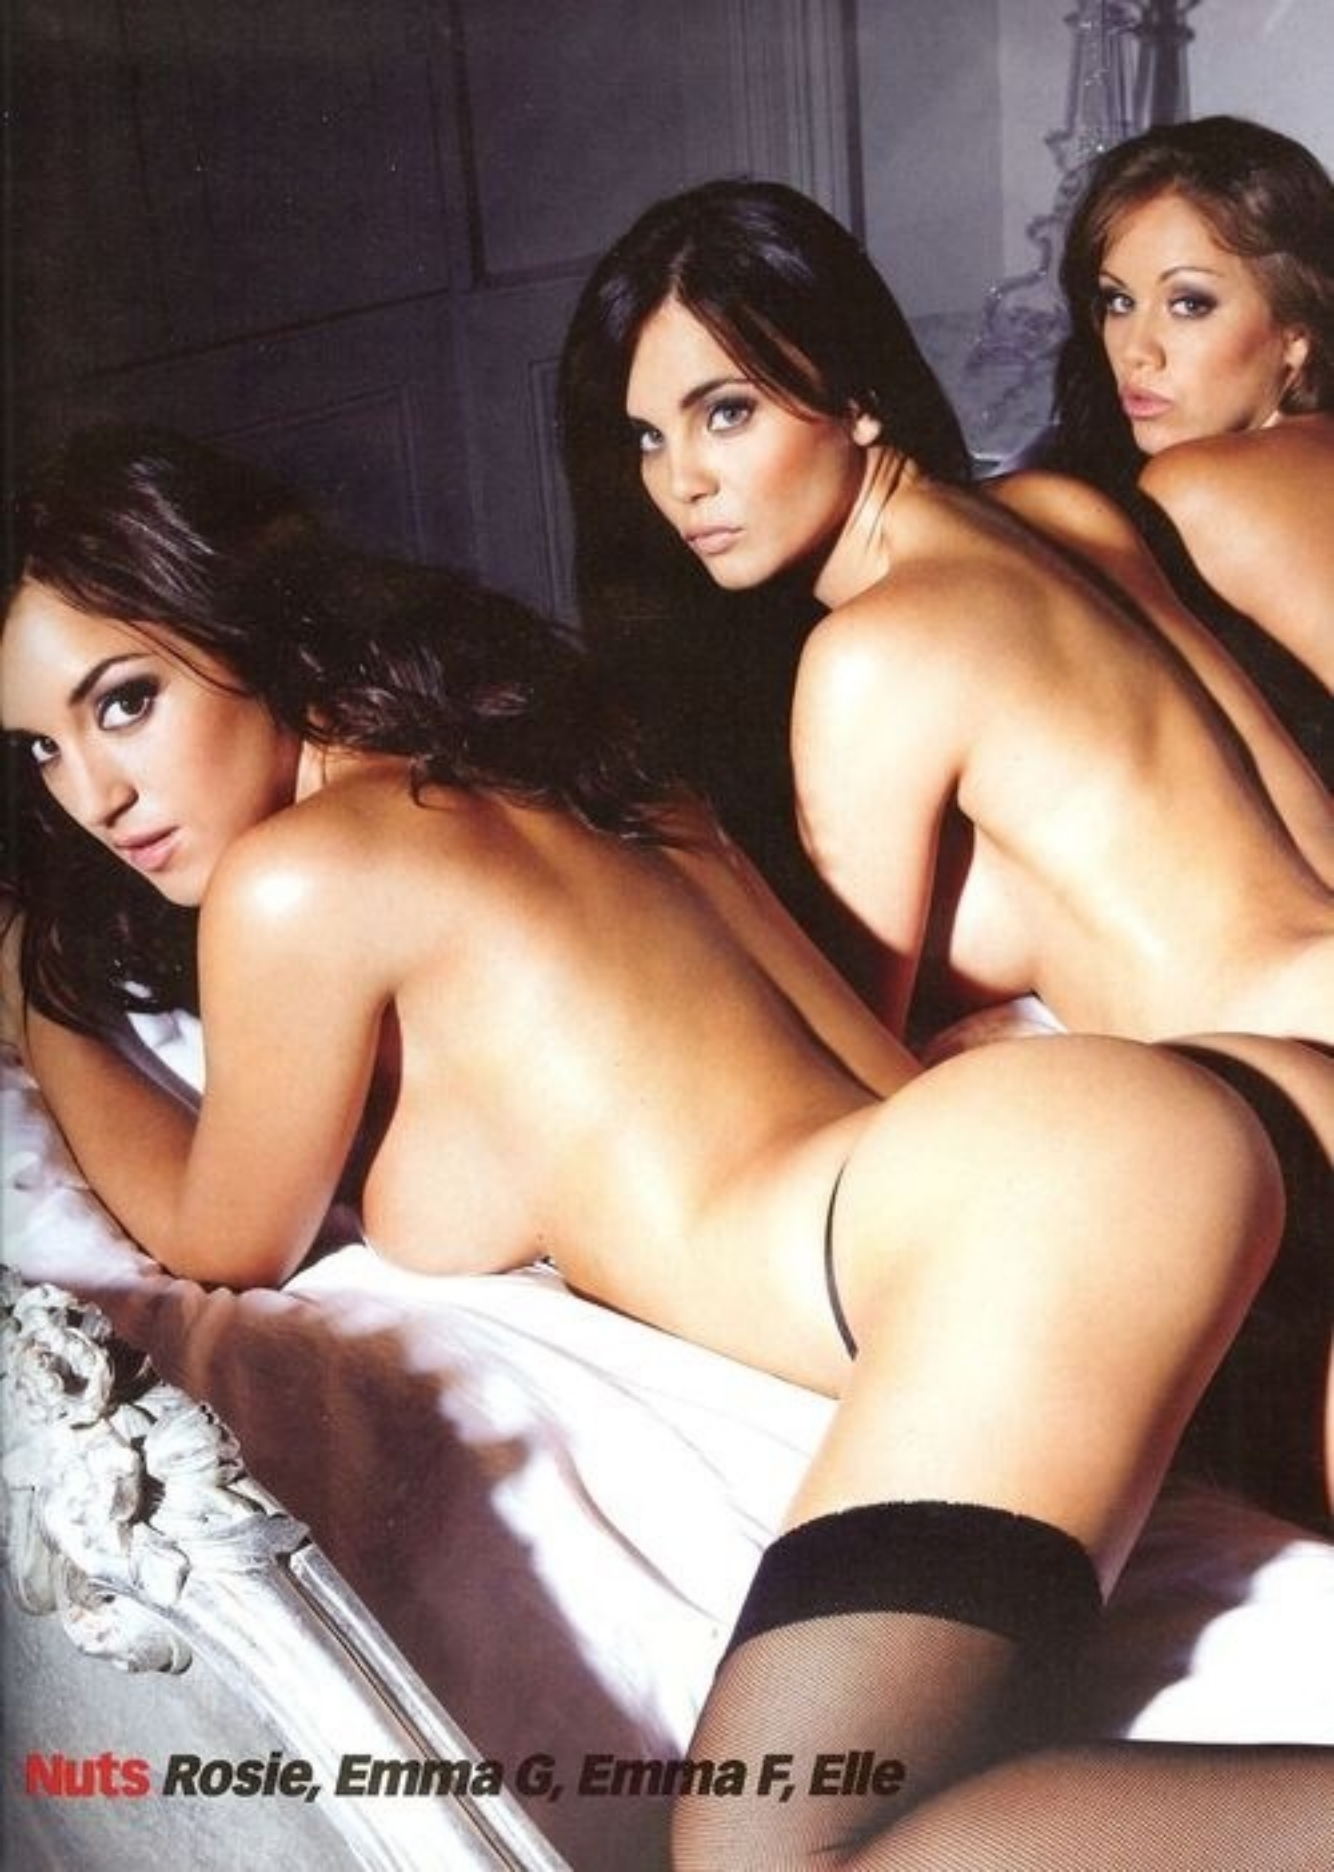

Who's the bustiest girl on the shoot today? That's tough, as everyone's really busty. Elle's nearly as busty as Emma!

Thanks, Rosie! Finally, is bed the best place to have sex, or can you think of somewhere better?

I think the best place to have sex is in a hotel, because it feels like you're doing something naughty. Or maybe on holiday. It's just better when you're not at home, as nobody can hear you! ➡

Hi Elle! We've not seen you before. How are you enjoying your first Nuts shoot? I know some of the girls already, so it's good to work with them. I'm looking forward to seeing the pictures!

Are you excited to be in Nuts?

I'm really excited! I'm just really happy to be here. I've only been modelling for about a year!

How would you introduce yourself to the readers?

I'm care-free, fun, bubbly and a bit of a clown. I love making people laugh and having a laugh.

What are your top three things to do in bed? Well, there's the obvious, but I also like to jump on the bed and test the springs! Being in bed is just the most amazing thing ever. Mine's brilliant - it's a king-size one and my puppy always sleeps with me!

What's the most embarrassing thing that's ever happened to you in bed? Someone was trying to be smooth once and he fell off the edge of the bed! It kind of ruined the moment, but it didn't take long to get it back.

What would your ideal day in bed be like? It would start with food! Then I'd have a little nap. Then I'd probably wake up and watch Dave on TV because it's my favourite channel. I love Top Gear.

Who would you most like to share a bed with - Clarkson, Hammond or May? Ew! Well, Clarkson's like a father figure, so that would be wrong. May's old enough to be my grandad. And I don't like Hammond. I'd really like to have sex with The Stig. I'd even let him keep his helmet on!

If you could pick any celebrity to share your bed, who would it be? Katy Perry would be the girl and Russell Brand would be the boy. Katy's boobs are lovely! And Russell Brand's a sex addict, so that would be interesting!

Thanks, Elle! Finally, where's the strangest place you've been up to no good? In my garage, on the bonnet of my dad's car! We got caught, though, so it wasn't exactly a pleasurable experience. We didn't notice the garage door was opening! ➔

EMMA

Hi Emma! Are you a morning or an evening person? I'd like to be in bed all the time if I could.

But if I'm talking about having sex in bed, it would be in the morning - I'm too tired at night!

Do you like a lie-in or getting up early? I like a lie-in - all day if I can! My ideal lie-in partner is Rosie. Every time I've been with her over a night, we've shared.

What do you wear in bed? Now! Well, in the depths of winter,

I might wear socks. I like comedy socks with little bobbles on them. Not normal cotton ones - they've got to be all soft and girly with snowflakes on. Or reindeer with red bobbles for a nose. I'd like to get some socks with boobs on!

If you were serving us breakfast in bed, what would you serve?

I'm quite a good cook, so I'd bake a cake! Would people want cake in the morning? I'd serve it in a pinny - one of those sexy little ones like French maids wear.

Then we'd like cakes, yes! If you could be a fly on anyone's bedroom wall, whose would it be? Anyone's? The Queen's!

I don't know what she gets up to in the bedroom, but I'd like to know! I bet they let the corgis watch. They probably get naked and run around the grounds.

What else do you like to do in bed? Cuddle my friends. Stacey Massey's the best cuddler.

We'll be on a night out and all of a sudden, she'll just flip and go, "Right, we're going home to cuddle." And we'll all go back and get into bed together!

What's your bedroom at home like? It's big with lots of light and big windows. Which is good for the light, but bad for having sex in the daytime. I live on a main road, so everyone can see in!

What's the most people you've ever had in bed? Me, Daisy, Rosie, Stacey, India and one more person. There were six of us!

Crikey! Thanks, Emma! Finally, what must a man never do in bed? Count! If you're having sex, count in your head and not out loud. If you need to do it, fine - just don't do it so she can hear! ➔

Hi Emma! Do you prefer sex in the morning or evening? I like morning sex because it sets you up for the rest of the day and you feel fresh, awake and energetic!

Are you a cuddly sleeper? Yeah, but I'm a really wriggly sleeper as well. I'll start off cuddling, then I'll get too hot and kick all the covers off. Then I'll pull them on again. Then I'll spread out like a star, so whoever I'm sleeping with ends up off the bed!

If you were going to seduce somebody, what would you do with your bedroom? I'd probably fill it with them little tea-light candles and some of them smelly joss sticks. And I'd probably get some massage oils and make it nice and relaxing.

How long do you think a sex marathon should last? I'd say a couple of hours because you've got foreplay and everything. Then you have to take time to go through all the positions!

If you were going to serve us breakfast in bed, what would you serve and how would you serve it? I always think a full English is good after a night of passion. I'm always starving after I've had sex. I work up an appetite! So a full English and a nice cup of tea. And a pint!

What's your bedroom like at home? I'm really tidy. I'm a bit of a clean freak. My sisters are the messiest people on the planet, so it's my job to tidy up after them!

We didn't know you had sisters! Yeah, I've got two younger sisters - one's 18 and one's 21.

Are they really hot? Yeah, they are. They don't really look like me, though. Everybody thinks I must've been adopted as a child!

Do you think bed is the best place to have sex? It's probably the easiest place to have sex, just because it's a flat surface, isn't it? It's comfortable! That said, there are flat surfaces everywhere - you just have to look for them!

Thanks, Emma! Finally, what do you wear to bed? A Nuts T-shirt. One of the men's ones! I always nick a few when I'm in the office because they're dead comfy! ■
